Promoting Your Financial Health with RapidRatings

Over 50,000 companies globally have been rated by RapidRatings. While every company is unique, there are 8 common reasons to promote your results...

01 Win more business

Differentiate from competitors and close deals faster with verified financial strength.

02 Build customer confidence

Demonstrate you're a stable, reliable partner for long-term projects.

03 Reduce procurement friction

Help customers satisfy their supplier risk management requirements.

04 Secure better terms

Leverage your rating to negotiate more favorable financing, credit, and investment conditions.

05 Strengthen stakeholder trust

Provide transparent, third-party validation of your financial health.

06 Meet compliance requirements

Address regulatory and contractual demands for financial transparency.

07 Drive internal improvement

Benchmark performance and create an actionable roadmap for financial optimization.

08 Enhance brand reputation

Position your company as financially sound and forward-thinking.

Where You Can Promote

Suppliers and vendors who earn a badge can promote it publicly on their website, marketing materials, and social channels, demonstrating their financial transparency to clients, partners, and prospects. Badges are a symbol of trust and opportunity in today's supply chain ecosystem.

How to Access Sharing Options for Your Badge

Upon being awarded a badge, you'll receive a summary of your achievement on your FHR Exchange dashboard. The summary includes a link to download a badge kit that contains the necessary badge assets.

Guide for External Communications

Promote across external marketing channels

Instructions: The following templates are designed to help you communicate externally with current business, future business, and target audiences. They are meant to act as a guide - please customize and update as you see fit.

Current Business: Clients

Mention your FHR Rating in company newsletters or client communications. Here is a short blurb you can leverage:

Subject: [Company Name] Commits to Financial Transparency

We're pleased to share that [Company Name] has earned a RapidRatings Rated Badge, joining over 50,000 companies worldwide committed to financial transparency and supplier risk management best practices.

Financial transparency is rapidly becoming the industry standard, and we're proud to be among the companies leading this shift. Our decision to obtain an independent financial health rating demonstrates:

- Commitment to transparency – providing you with clear visibility into our financial practices
- Proactive risk management – ensuring we meet the evolving standards of supply chain due diligence
- Partnership accountability – giving you the third-party validation needed for informed decision-making
- Industry leadership – adopting best practices that strengthen the entire supply chain ecosystem

This independent assessment supports our commitment to maintaining strong business practices and transparent relationships with our valued clients.

We'd be happy to share our FHR report with you. Please don't hesitate to reach out if you'd like to learn more about what this means for our partnership.

Thank you for your continued trust in [Company Name].

Future Business: Prospects

Mention your RapidRatings accolade to help win new business. Here is a short blurb you can leverage:

Subject: *[Company Name] Leads on Financial Transparency

[Prospect Name],

Financial transparency is quickly becoming the industry standard for supplier relationships. That's why [Company Name] has proactively obtained a Rated Badge from RapidRatings, the global standard for financial health assessment used by over 50,000 companies worldwide.

What this means for you:

Unlike many vendors, we've embraced third-party financial transparency. Our RapidRatings assessment provides:

- Independent validation of our financial practices and business health
- Reduced due diligence burden for your procurement and risk teams
- Proactive risk management that meets emerging supply chain standards
- Transparent partnership built on verified financial disclosure

As financial transparency becomes standard practice, we're committed to being ahead of the curve. I'd welcome the opportunity to discuss how our commitment to transparency and [brief mention of your core offering] can support your goals in [their area of need].

Are you available for a brief conversation next week?
